Albuquerque Coin Club Library Catalog

This is the catalog of the Albuquerque Coin Club Library as of December 2009. Please note that the ACC Library's holdings are constantly changing as new books are acquired and obsolete ones may be de-accessioned at some point. Suggestions for new acquisitions are always welcomed, and should be given to the librarian.

The ACC Library currently contains over 400 items, in the following categories:
Ancients; Arabic, Islamic and Muslim; Canada; China; DVD's, Videos & Tapes; Errors; German States and Germany; Gold; Grading; Great Britain and the British Empire; Mexico and Latin America; Miscellaneous Topics; Tokens, Medals and Notgeld; United States Coins; United States Currency; World Coins and World Currency.

Using the Library
The ACC intends its library to serve all of its members and the materials to be shared for the common good. Members in good standing may borrow two (2) books and/or videos or DVDs that may be available. A card will be filled out when library material is loaned and will include publication information, borrower information signatures and due dates. The Library reserves the right to restrict the number of items borrowed by any borrower and to revise check out procedures of library material as needed.

When requesting an item, please provide the ACC catalog number (example: PM-0123), the category (example: Ancients) and the title of the item. The books and video material will be loaned during the period from regular meeting date to regular meeting date. The Library reserves the right to request that any item be returned before its due date if a need arises. It is the responsibility of the borrower to ensure that he/she is aware of the due date of all material checked out and that the contact information we have on file are current.

Care of the library material
Our books and video material may be heavily used and as a consequence suffer wear and tear. We ask that you treat all library items with care and respect. Please do not make notes, highlight or underline comments in books. Do not cut or tear pages from the books.

Any theft or mutilation of library materials denies access to information to all other members. It is also a violation of library regulations and as such is subject to disciplinary measures, which may affect your access to the library and/or suspension from the coin club. This policy will apply to overdue books or media material. Any overdue library material could risk the loss or suspension of club membership and club privileges until the library material is returned in good condition. In the event of any dispute, the dispute will be taken under consideration by the club officers and directors.

How to borrow items from the library
A list of items that is available as are posted on the club website or available in hard copy as requested.

- Members can contact the person in charge of the library or one of the club officers by telephone or by email at least a week prior to a regular meeting to see if the items are available to be checked out.
- If the items are available, the books will be brought to the following meeting or if an officer is available, they can be checked out at the library location.
- A check out card will be filled out with the appropriate information.
- The borrower must be familiar with the due dates and will sign the form to acknowledge their understanding of the procedures and due dates.
- Once the library material is returned, the condition and date of return will be noted on the original check out card.
